Letter of Invitation for Internship

Dear Soham Roy,

We are pleased to invite you for internship to our Laboratory at the School of Computer Science and Engineering, Nanyang Technological University during 1st May – 31st July 2022. Due to the current travel restriction, we will host this internship remotely.

Your assigned project is: Optimized Linear Layer Implementation for Lightweight Cipher Design. During the duration of the internship, we expect you to update us on your progress on weekly basis and also submit a formal project report at the end of the internship.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Best Regards,

*Anupam
Chattopadhyay*
